

Haikus from Aranzazu Lascrain
Assistant University Director
Southeast Climate Adaptation Science Center (NC State University)

HERE ARE 3 HAIKU THAT I'VE WRITTEN ON WEATHER GRAMS AND PLACED OUTDOORS ON TREES, A JAPANESE TRADITION TO MARK THE CHANGING OF THE SEASONS~~

~I want to sing like birds sing, enjoy the sound~

~During Winter's bone, light of sun creeps ever day longer~

~The Cedar Waxwing moves swiftly, feeding, enjoying the Winter's sun~
